This Year's Bowl Game

Frisco Bowl

Dallas, TX

Rules of the Trip

1. Attend a different game each year.
2. Inaugural, last games, or least expensive venue takes priority when choosing what bowl game to attend next.
3. Tom and Brian root for different teams.
4. Previous year's loser gets to pick the team to root for the following year.
5. Respective team paraphernalia to be worn by each participant.
6. Point spread from local city paper on game day will be used.
7. Loser pays for all post game activities (dinner, beverages, etc...).
8. Achieve rules 1-7 without sacrificing the college education of our children.

How It All Began

January 1, 1984, while attending the Sugar Bowl, we watched a group of jubilant shriners motorcade in their traditional fashion during a half time celebration commemorating the Bowl's 50th anniversary. The idea was struck that we too should do something to commemorate our friendship since college and realized that the festivities of a bowl game was the best place to do it. In an attempt to blaze a trail where no pair of fans have ever walked before, we decided that we would go to a different bowl game every year until we had seen them all.

Just A Few We've Seen ...

Bo Jackson - Sugar

Bo knows Tom & Brian.

Peyton Manning - Citrus

A man playing against boys.

LaDainian Tomlinson - Mobile

ECU learns first hand there's no stopping this kid!

Philip Rivers - Tangerine

One of the best college passers we've seen.

Demarcus Ware - Silicon Valley

We see Troy's highest pro prospect player ever!
